Dear Fellow Stamp Enthusiast:

In this edition we're celebrating the history, tradition and culture of American Indians. Our Art of the American Indian souvenir sheet of 10 stamps will make a beautiful addition to any collection. Created by art director Richard Sheaff and calligrapher John Stevens, these stamps bring to life the carvings, sculpture and weavings that are part of our national heritage.

Over the past decade, our Legends of Hollywood series has become one of the most highly anticipated and talked-about stamp issuances of the year. Like the Academy Awards, everyone wants to know who will be honored. This year, as we dedicate the tenth addition in the series, we are extremely proud to include John Wayne in this elite group.

Like many people, I'm sure you have a favorite John Wayne film. I have two, El Dorado and In Harm's Way. I must admit, when I find either of these movies on TV, I stop whatever I am doing and watch the Duke! He is truly an American icon, and I hope you enjoy our philatelic tribute to his outstanding career.

Additionally, our American Treasures series continues with the philatelic spotlight focused on a highly regarded 19th-century American painter, Martin Johnson Heade. His painting, Giant Magnolias on a Blue Velvet Cloth, is a striking image that will look great on love letters and in stamp collections.

In case you want something a little more unusual, add a pane of the R. Buckminster Fuller stamps. "Bucky," as he was known to friends and fans alike, was an inventor, architect and engineer, and was considered one of America's most original thinkers. The artwork used to recognize the creator of the geodesic dome is a reproduction of a 1964 Time magazine cover. I promise your letters and collections will stand out with "Bucky" attached.

Finally, join us this fall in New York City to see the beautiful and colorful new 2004 holiday stamps at our Fall Postage Stamp Mega Event on October 14–17 at the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center. It should be another exceptional show!

Sincerely,

David E. Failor

America's native expression of beauty.

Featuring photographs of American Indian artifacts dating from around the 11th century A.D. to circa 1969, this souvenir sheet of ten jumbo self-adhesive stamps celebrates the talent, ingenuity and artistic skills of American Indians. The artifacts served utilitarian, social, spiritual and commercial purposes, but they were also extraordinary expressions of beauty. The lettering in the title was designed and created by John Stevens.

C Navajo Jewelry

An exquisite Navajo necklace is the basis for the latest stamp in the American Design series. The 2-cent definitive features artist Lou Nolan's painting of a Navajo silver and turquoise necklace with sand-cast "squash blossoms." Nolan based his artwork on a photograph by Peter T. Furst.

D Martin Johnson Heade

C Lewis & Clark: The Corps of Discovery, 1804-1806 Prestige Booklet

In 1804 President Thomas Jefferson sent Meriwether Lewis and William Clark in search of the elusive Northwest Passage. They led the Corps of Discovery on a heroic expedition from the mouth of the Missouri River near St. Louis to the Pacific Ocean and back. Their journey is commemorated in a prestige booklet containing two semi-jumbo stamp designs featuring individual portraits of Lewis and Clark painted by Michael J. Deas in a style reminiscent of early 19th-century portraits of the two explorers.

F Early Football Heroes

Designed by Richard Sheaff, this issue presents four legends from football's storied past: Walter Camp, Red Grange, Ernie Nevers and Bronko Nagurski. Camp played for Yale in the 19th century and is credited with many of the game's innovations. Grange's speed and evasive running style attracted record crowds, while Nevers's incredible versatility earned him the one-game professional scoring record. And Nagurski's immense strength at tackle and fullback helped the Chicago Bears capture the NFL's first official championship.
